

Inside the Studio with Tlingit Artist James Johnson

Virtual Art Talk: Watch the recording of our Virtual Art Talk featuring award-winning Tlingit artist and carver James Johnson, moderated by Chief Curator Diana Pardue. Johnson takes viewers on a tour of his studio space and shares insights into Tlingit formline design, a foundational element of his artistic practice developed thousands of years ago. Johnson has showcased his work at several Heard Museum events, including Holidays at the Heard and Indian Fair & Market.