Entry Forms

A completed and signed Juried Competition Entry Form must accompany each piece submitted. Two entry forms will be mailed out with booth assignment packets. We will have extra forms available during art receiving on Thursday, March 4, 2027. To save time please fill out the forms sent to you in advance. If you have questions, you may bring the forms and artwork in on Thursday.

The artist's signature on the Juried Competition Entry Form confirms that the artwork described in the form will be on temporary loan to the Heard Museum for the period beginning on Thursday, March 4, 2027, and ending on Saturday, March 6, 2027, or such earlier date as the artist/lender or artist's representative reclaims the artwork.

The Heard Museum will insure the loaned objects for their fair market value under its policy of insurance from the time the items leave the artist/lender's custody, while on location at the Heard Museum, and until the items are returned to the artist/lender's custody. Fair market value is determined by an independent professional appraiser appointed by the Heard Museum.
